Wednesday, May 12, 2021

QUESTIONS/ PROMPTS:

1. What are our values as a community that will guide this planning process?

Breakout Group #1

Lisa Brownfield and Apollo Rojas

✔ ✔ Equity.	Focus on disproportionate environmental burden for disadvantaged communities	Ability for young people to find a place to rent or buy	Housing near transity	Housing stability for current residents
Consider conservation of marshes in safety element	Affordability on all levels and housing types	Opportunities for ppl who work here to live here	Gradual increase in density in SFH neighborhoods	Workforce development and apprenticeship programs
✓ ✓ Diversity and inclusiveness	Environmental stability	Affordable childcare	Family centered activities	Increased supply levels in very low affordability
New development access to transit and open space	All municipalities do their fair share	Lower housing construction cost

Breakout Group #2

Genevieve Sharrow and Alin Lancaster

Breakout Group #3

Joan Chaplick and Diana O'Dell

Prioritize Lower and Moderate Income	More duplexes and triplexes on the west side of City	Prioritize different types of housing	Diversity is critical to preserve	Avoid gentrificatio
Build more housing for low income people	Socio- economic diversity is important	Walkability would be great	Taller buildings near transit with 20% affordability	More housing choices and multifamily units
Support units for families (larger units)	Want to be proud of community	Caring for less fortunate	Need to do more to help homeless	People who live in RVs can we help them
Clean City - no trash and dumping	Policies to support preservation of existing naturally affordable	Transit - Housing connection is important	Ethnic diversity is important	Economic diversity is important
Questions about ADUs, how contribute?	Concerns about amount of office space - limit how much to approve	Community land trusts - allow older buildings to be purchased more affordably	City participate as a land trust?	DIVERSITY
PUBLIC LIBRARY EVENTS	DOWNTOWN ACTIVITIES and CULTURAL ACTIVITIES	TREE-LINED STREETS WITH MATURE TREES AND PARKS	CLIMATE!	HIGHER DENSITY HOUSING
	WATERFRONT IS SPECIAL
